

Bridal Shows

Bridal Shows offer useful, practical advice to the bride and groom, as well as a listing of local wedding services from which to choose. What better way is there to make your final decisions than to meet the professionals in person! At Bridal Shows, you will be able to shop and compare with many professionals at one time. These well attended shows offer you everything under one roof: gowns, tuxedos, flowers, invitations, photography, videography, catering, gifts, limousines, carriage rides, wedding cakes, beauty services, wedding consultants, wedding and reception sites, and so much more! You can converse with these professionals, collect literature, sample the offerings of caterers and bakers, take in the scents of floral arrangements, listen to DJs, and classical musicians...even hire a service right on the spot.

An exciting part of each Bridal Show is the many bridal fashions. These shows offer a great opportunity to see - in one location, at one time, on live models - an array of the finest gowns, bridesmaid dresses and tuxedos offered by local bridal shops and formalwear stores. Many bride has found her "perfect gown" on stage at a bridal fashion show.

Don't forget the prizes! Each year at the shows, brides and grooms are eligible for many prizes when they register upon entering the doors. These fabulous items range from wedding cakes and DJ packages to weekend getaways and tuxedo packages. Thousands of dollars in gift certificates and prizes are awarded throughout the day.

When attending the shows it is best to allow enough time to talk with the exhibitors. Have questions ready. Bring a pen and paper for notes. Dress casually and wear comfortable walking shoes. You have an entire day of planning ahead of you - make the best of it!

Attending a bridal show is definitely a timesaving activity.
